Articles, Lawes, and Orders, Divine, Politique, and Martiale for the Colony in Virginia: first established by Sir Thomas Gates Knight, Lieutenant Generall, the 24th of May 1604. exemplified and approved by the Right Honourable Sir Thomas West Knight, Lord Lawair, Lord Governour and Captaine Generall the 12th of June 1610. Againe exemplified and enlarged by Sir Thomas Dale Knight, Marshall, and Deputie Governour, the 22nd of June. 1611.

Whereas his Majestie like himselfe a most zealous Prince hath in his owne Realmes a principall care of true Religion, and reverence to God, and hath alwaies strictly commaundd his Generals and Governours, with all his forces wheresoever, to let their wales be like his ends, for the glorie of God.

And forasmuch as no good service can be performed, or warre well managed, where military discipline is not observed, and militarie discipline cannot be kept, where the rules or chief parts thereof, be not certainly set downe, and generally knowen, I have (with the advise and counsell of Sir Thomas Gates Knight, Lieutenant Generall) adhered unto the lawes divine, and orders politique, and martiall of his Lordship (the same exemplified) an addition of such others, as I have found either the necessitie of the present State of the Colonie to require, or the infancie, and weaknesse of the body thereof, as yet able to digest, and doe now publish them to all persons in the Colonye, that they may as well take knowledge of the Lawes themselves, as of the penible and punishment, which without partialitie shall be inflicted upon the breakers of the same.

1 First since we owe our highest and supreme duty, our greatest, and all our allegiance to him, from whom all power and authority is derived, and owes as from the first, and onely fountaine, and being especiall soulidiers emprest in this sacred cause, we must alone expect our succease from him, who is onely the blesser of all good attempts, the King of kings, the commander of commanders, and Lord of Hostes, I do strictly command and charge all Capitaines and Officers, of what qualitie or nature sever, whether commanders in the field, or in towne, or townes, forts or fortresses, to have a care that the Almighty God bee duly and daily served, and that they call upon their people to heare Sermons, as that also they diligently frequent Morning and Evening prayer themselves by their owne exemplar and daily life, and dutie herein, encouraging others thereunto, and that such, who shall often and wilfully absent themselves, be duly punished according to the martiall law in that case provided.

2 That no man speake impiously or maliciously, against the holy and blessed Trinite, or any of the three persons, that is to say, against God the Father, God the Son, and God the holy Ghost, or against the knowne Articles of the Christian faith, upon paine of death.

3 That no man blaspheme Gods holy name upon paine of death, or use unlawfull oaths, taking the name of God in vaine, curse, or banne, upon paine of severe punishment

4 No man shall use any traiterous words against his Majesties Person, or royall authority upon paine of death.

5 No man shall speake any word, or do any act, which may tend to the derision, or despit of Gods holy word upon paine of death: Nor shall any man unworthily demean himselfe unto any Preacher, or Minister of the same, but generally hold them in all reverent regard, and dutiful intreatie, otherwise he the offender shall openly be whipt three times, and ask publicke forrenesse in the assembly of the congregation three several Sabboth daies.

6 Everie man and woman duly twice a day upon the first towling of the Bell shall upon the working daies repaire unto the Church, to hear divine Service upon pain of losing his or her daies allowance for the first omission, for the second to be whipt, and for the third to be condemned to the Gallies for six Moneths. Likewise no man or woman shall dare to violate or breake the Sabboth by any gaming, publique, or private abroad, or at home, but duly sanctifie and observe the same, both himselfe and his familie, by preparing themselves at home with private prayer, that they may be the better fitted for the publique, according to the commandements of God, and the orders of our Church, as also every man and woman shall repaire in the morning to the divine service, and Sermons preached upon the Sabboth day, and in the afternoon to divine service, and Catechising, upon paine for the first fault to lose their provision, and allowance for the whole weke following, for the second to lose the said allowance, and also to be whipt, and for the third to suffer death.

7 All Preachers or Ministers within this our Colonie, or Colonies, shall in the Forts, where they are resident, utter divine service, duly preach every Sabbath day in the forenoon, and Catechise in the afternoon, and weekly say the divine service, twice every day, and preach every Wednesday, likewise every Minister where he is resident, within the same Fort, or Fortresse, Townes or Towne, shall chuse unto him, foure of the most religious and better disposed as well to informe of the abuses and neglects of the people in their duties, and service to God, as also to the due reparation, and keeping of the Church handsome, and fitted with all reverent observations thereunto belonging: likewise every Minister shall keepe a faithful and true Record, or Church Booke, of all Christnings, Marriages, and deaths of such our people, as shall happen within their Fort, or Fortresses, Townes or Towne at any time, upon the burthen of a neglectfull conscience, and upon paine of losing their Entertainment.

8 He that upon pretended malice, shall murther or take away the life of any man, shall bee punished with death.

9 No man shall commit the horrible, and detestable sins of Sodomy upon pain of death; and he or she that can be lawfully convict of Adultery shall be punished with death. No man shall ravish or force any woman, maid or Indian, or other, upon pain of death, and know the that he or she, that shall commit fornication, and evident profe made thereof, for their first fault shall be whipt, for their second they shall be whipt, and for their third they shall be whipt three times a weke for one month, and aske publique for-giveness in the Assembly of the Congregation.

10 No man shall bee found guilty of Sacrilege, which is a Trespass as well committed in violating and abusing any sacred ministry, duty or office of the Church, irreverently, or prophanely, as by beeing a Church robber, to filch, steal or carry away any thing out of the Church appertaining thereunto, or unto any holy, and consecrated place, to the divine Service of God, which no man should doe upon paine of death: likewise he that shall rob the store of any commodities therein, of what quality soever, whether provisions of victuals, or of Arms, Trucking stuffe, Apparel, Linen, or Wollen, Hose or Shooes, Hats or Caps, Instruments or Tooles of Steele, Iron, etc. or shall rob from his fellow souldier, or neighbour, any thing that is his, victuals, apparel, household stuffe, toole, or what necessary else soever, by water or land, out of boate, house, or knapsack, shall bee punished with death.

11 Hee that shall take an oath unruly, or bear false wit- nesse in any cause, or against any man whatsoever, shall be punished with death.

12 No manner of person whatsoever, shall dare to detract, slander, calumniate, or utter unseemly, and unfitting speeches, either against his Majesties Honourable Counsell for this Colony, resident in England, or against the Com- mittees, Assistants unto the said Counsell, or against the zealous indevours, and intentions of the whole body of Ad- venturers for this pious and Christian Plantation, or against 31 What man or woman soever, shall rob any garden, publike or private, being set to weed the same, or wilfully pluck up therein any roote, herbe, or flower, to spoil and wast or steale the same, or robbe any vineyard, or gather up the grapes, or steale any eares of the corn growing, whether in the ground belonging to the same fort or towne where he dwellth, or in any other, shall be punished with death.

32 Whosoever Seaman, or Landman of what quality, or in what place of command soever, shall be employed upon any discovery, trade, or fishing voyage into any of the rivers within the precincts of our Colonie, shall for the safety of those men who are committed to his command, stand upon good and careful guard, for the prevention of any treachery in the Indian, and if they touch upon any shore, they shall be no lesse circumspect, and warie, with good and careful guard day and night, putting forth good Centinell, and observing the orders and discipline of watch and ward, and when they have finished the discovery, trade, or fishing, they shall make hast with all speed, with such Barke or Barkes, Pinisse, Gallie, Ship. etc. as they shall have the command of, for the same purpose, to James towne againe, not presuming to goe beyond their commission, or to carry any such Barke or Barkes, Gallie, Pinisse, Ship. etc. for England or any other country in the actual possession of any Chris tian Prince, upon peril to be held an enemy to this plantation, and traitor thereto unto, and accordingly to lie liable unto such censure of punishment (if they arrive in England) as shall be thought fit by the Right Honourable Lords, his Majesties Council for this Colony, and if it shall so happen, that he or they shall be prevented, and brought backe lither againe into the Colongie, their treacherous flight to be punished with death.

33 There is not one man nor woman in this Colonie now present, or hereafter to arrive, but shall give up an account of his and their faith, and religion, and repaire unto the Minister, that by his conference with them, hee may understand, and gather, whether heretofore they have beene sufficiently instructed, and catechised in the principles and grounds of Religion, whose weaknesse and ignorance herein, the Minister finding, and advising them in all love and charity, to repaire often unto him, to receive therein a greater measure of knowledge, if they shall refuse so to repaire unto him, and he the Minister give notice thereof unto the Governour, or that chiefe officer of that towne or fort, wherein he or she, the parties so offending shall remaine, the Governour shall cause the offender for his first time of refusal to be whipt, for the second time to be whipt twice, and to acknowledge his fault upon the Saboth day, in the assembly of the congregation, and for the third time to be whipt every day until he hath made the same acknowledgement, and asked forgiveness for the same, and shall repaire unto the Minister, to be further instructed as aforesaid: and upon the Saboth when the Minister shall catechise, and of him demand any question concerning his faith and knowledge, he shall not refuse to make answere upon the same perill.

34 What man or woman soever, Laundrer or Laundress apointed to wash the foule linnen of any one labourer or soullder, or any one else as it is their duties so to doe, performing little, or no other service for their allowance out of the master, and daily provisions, and supply of other necessaries, unto the Colongie, and shall from the said labourer or soullder, or any one else, of what qualitie whatsoever, either take any thing for washing, or withhold or steal from him any such linnen committed to her charge to wash, or change the same willingly and wittingly, with purpose to give him worse, old and torne linnen for his good, and prove shall be made thereof, she shall be whipped for the same, and lie in prison till she make restitution of such linnen, withheld or changed.

35 No Capitaine, Master, or Mariner, of what condition soever, shall depart or carry out of our river, any Ship, Bark, Barge, Gally, Pinnace etc. Roaders belonging to the Colongie, either now therein, or hither arriving, without leave and commissiion from the Generall or chiefe Communder of the Colongie upon paine of death.

36 No man or woman whatsoever, members of this Colongie, shall sell or give unto any Capitaine, Marriner, Master, or Sailer, etc. any commodity of this country, of what quality soever, to be transported out of the Colongie, for his or their owne private uses, upon paine of death.

37 If any soullder indebted, shall refuse to pay his debts unto his creditor, his creditor shall informe his Captaine, if the Captaine cannot agree the same, the creditor shall informe the Marshals civil and principal officer, who shall preferre for the creditor a bill of complaint at the Marshals Court, where the creditor shall have Justice.

All such Bakers as are appointed to bake bread, or what else, either for the store to be given out in general, or for any one in particular, shall not steal nor imbazzell, loose, or defraud any man of his due and proper weight and measure, nor use any dishonest and deceitfull tricke to make the bread weigh heavier, or make it courser upon purpose to keepe backe any part or measure of the flower or meale committed unto him, nor aske, take, or detaine any one loafe more or lesse for his hire or paines for so baking, since whilst he who delivered unto him such meale or flower, being to attend the business of the Colonic, such baker or bakers are imposed upon no other service or duties, but onlye so to bake for such as do workes, and this shall hee take notice of, upon paine for the first time offending herein of losing his earres, and for the second time to be condemned an yeare to the Gallies, and for the third time offending, to be condemnded to the Gallies for three yeares.

And if upon the first offence given by any officer or solldier, upon any other, in words as aforesaid, and the other returne injurious words againes, they shall both be taken as like offenders, and suffer like punishment, saving that he who gave the first offence, shall offer first reparie unto the offended, which he the offended shall accept, and then shall he proceed to returne the like satisfaction unto the other, and if any shall bee obstinate in this point of reparie, and satisfaction, hee shall suffer sharpe and severe punishment, until hee shall consent unto it, the words or manner of satisfaction, to be given unto the Party, or parties offended, shall be appointed by the chiefe officer of the Company, under whom the officer, or solldier shall happen to bee, with the knowledge of the provost Marshall, provided, that if the Officer or solldier shall desire it, hee may appeale unto the chiefe officer of the Garrison, or unto the Marshall, if hee shall be present to Judge of the equity of the satisfaction. And if any Lanceprizado, Corporall, or other officer, shall happen to bee present, or shall take knowledge of any such offence offered of one partie, or Quarrell sought and accepted of more partes, he shall presently cause the partie, or partes so offending to bee committed to prison, that due execution may follow, as is formerly provided. And if any Lanceprizado, Corporall, or superiour officer shall neglect his or their duty, or duties heretofore appointed, by not bringing the offender, and their offences, to the knowledge of the superior officer[r], that satisfaction as aforesaid, upon the fault committed, may orderly follow, the officer so offending, shall for his first omission, negligence, and contempt, suffer ten dailies Imprisonment, for the second twenty, and for the third losse of his place, and to bee put to the duty of a Centinell: And if any officer, or Souldier shall be present when two or more shall draw weapons, with intent to fight, or shall fight, they shall presently doe their best to part them, and if he be an officer he shall commit them, or put them under safe guard to bee committed, and if hee bee a private solldier, hee shall give notice to the provost, marshall, or unto the first officer that he shal meet with, of the parties offending, who shall presently take order, that they may be apprehended, and committed to the Provost Martialy, and if any officer or solldier, shall happen to see any officer or solldier so fighting, and shall not doe his best to part them, without favouring one part or other, hee shall bee punished at the discretion of the officer in chiefe, and the punishment shall extend to the taking away of life, if the cause shal so require, and if any officer, or solldier shall know of any purpose in any to fight, and shall not stay them, or discover them to such officers, as are competent to stay them, but that they goe to fight, and doe accordingly fight, that officer, or solldier shall bee taken, and shal bee punished deereley and in the same sort, as the offence deserveth punishment betwenee them fighting.

14 That officer, or Souldier that shall challenge another to fight, and hee that shall carry any Challenge, knowing it to be a Challenge, and he that accepteth any such Challenge with a purpose and returne of answere, to meete the saide Challenger to fight with him, in this case they shall all three be held alike culpable, and lie subject to the Censure of a Martiall Court.

15 That officer who shall command the guard and let such Challengers and Challenged, passe the ports, upon his knowledge to fight, shall be caseired, and if the officer be under the degree of a Captaine, hee shall bee put to doe the duty of a Centinell.

16 No officer shall strike any souldier, for any thing, not concerning the order, and duty of service, and the publique worke of the Colony, and if any officer shall so doe, hee shall bee punished as a private man in that case, and bee held unworthy to command, so perverting the power of his place and authority.

17 No man shall be Captaine of the watch at any time, under the degree of an Ensigne.

18 He that shall take the name of God in vain or shall play at Cards or dice, upon the Court of guard, for the first time so offending, he shall be committed to prison, there to lie in Irons for three days, for the second time so offending, hee shall be whipt, and for the third time so offending hee shall be condemned to the Gallies for one yeere.

19 Hee that shall absent himselfe from the Court of Guard, uppon his watch above one houre without leave of his Corporall or superior officer, shall for his first time so offending, at the relieving of the watch bee committed to prison, and there to lie in Irons for 5 days, for the second time he shall be committed to prison and there lie in irons for one weekes, and have his entertainement checkt for one wecke, and for the third time, hee shall be committed to the Gallies for sixe moneths.

20 He that shall swagger, and give injurious words upon the court of guard, for the first offence, hee shall ake forgivenesse upon his knees, of the officers, and rest of the Guard, before the Captaine of the watch at that time: for his second time so offending, he shall bee committed to the Gallies for one yeere.

21 He that draweth his sword upon the Court of Guard, shall suffer death by the Armes which he weareth.

22 Hee that should draw his sword in a towne of Garrison, or in a Campe shall lose his right hand.

23 That souldier that shall goe out of the Fort, Towne or Campe, other then by the ordinary guards, issues, wailes, or ports, shall suffer death by the Armes which he carrieth.

24 He that shall abuse and injure the Serjeant Major, the provost Marshall, either by word, or deede, if hee bee a Captaine, hee shall be caseird, if a Souldier he shall passe the pikes.

25 When the Officer or Souldier shall have committed any Crime, or have made breach of the publique Lawes, his Captaine shall commit him unto the serjeant Major, who having taken his examination, shall send him to the Provost Marshall, committed unto prison, that he may bee brought to be censured by a court Marshall.

26 No Souldier shall withstand or hinder the Provost Marshall, or his men in the execution of his office, upon paine of death.

* Behave in an insolent or defiant manner.
27 All Captaines, Lieutenants, Serjeants, and Corporals, shall be diligent at convenient times, to traine and exercise their Companies, and shall have a care of their Armes, as they tender their entertainement, and upon paine of casearing, and other corporall punishment, as shall be inflicted by vertue of a Marshall court.

28 No man shall goe twelve score A from the quarter, his colours, towne or fort, without leave of his Captaine, upon paine for the first time of whipping, for the second offence to be committed to the Gallies for one yeare, and for the third offence to suffer death.

29 No man shall sell, give, imbezell, or play away his Armes, or any part thereof, upon paine of death.

30 No common Souldier shall sell, or make away any of his apparell, which is delivered unto him by the Colonie, or out of the store, upon paine of whipping.

31 No man shall depart from his guard without leave of his officer, upon paine of punishment: and who so shall be set Centinell, shall not depart from it, untill he be relieved, nor sleepe thereof upon paine of death.

32 No man shall offer any violence, or contemnuously resist or disobey his Commandeur, or doe any act, or speake any words which may tend to the breeding of any disorder or mutiny in the towne or field, or disobey any principall Officers directions upon paine of death.

33 He that shall not appeare upon the guard, or not re-paire unto his colours, when the Drum upon any occasion shall beate either upon an Alarum, or to attend the businesse which shall be then commandd, shall for his first 35 That Souldier that shall let go any caution A delivered upon a treate, or any prisoner of warre by his negligence, shall be punished with death.

36 No Souldier shall let goe any prisoner of war, which he hath taken without consent of his Captaine, who shall advertise the chiefe Commandeur, upon paine of being committed to the Gallies for one yeare.

37 That Souldier which upon an assault, or taking of any towne, that shall not follow his colours, and the victory, but shall fail to pillage for his private profit, after the place taken, shall suffer death with the armes which he wearreth.

38 No Souldier may speake or have any private conference with any of the salvages, A without leave of his Captaine, nor his Captaine without leave of his chief Officer, upon paine of death.

39 When the Marshall or Governour of a towne, shall demand a Souldier that hath made breach of these laws, that Captaine or any other that shall conceale him, or assist him to flye away, shall bee punished with the punishment which the fact of the said fugitive deserved.

40 That Captaine that shall ipso facto, find any Souldier breaking these fore declared laws and ordinances, of whatsoever company he shall be, he shall commit him to the Provost Marshall to be punished according as the offence committed commeth under the construction of the Martial law in that case provided.

41 No Souldier shall unprofitably waste his powder, shot, or match, by shooting it idly away, or at birds, beasts, or fowle, but shall give an account unto his Corporal of the same, who shall certify his Captain upon peril for his first fault so committed, to be committed to prison, there to lie in Irons head and heels together eight and forty hours, for the second to be condemned sixe months to the Gallies, and for the third offence to be condemned two yeares to the Gallies.

42 All Captaines, Officers, and common Souldiers, or others of what condition soever, members of the Colonie, shall doe their endeavours to detect, apprehend, and bring to punishment all offenders, and shall assist the officer of that place for that purpose, as they will answere the contrary at our Marshall court.

43 All other faults, disorders, and offences that are not mentioned in these Laws, Articles, and Orders shall be and are supplied in the instructions which I have set downe, and now shall be delivered unto every Captain, and other Officer, so farre forth as the infancy, and as yet weak condition of this our present Colony will suffer, and which shall be punished according to the generall custome, and therefore I command all men to looke to their charges, and him that hath no charge to looke to his owne carriage, and to kepe himselfe within the bounds of dutie, for the tinted in any other effect, or make any noise or rumor where silence, secrecy, and covert is to be required, shall be punished with death.

49 Whosoever shall not retreat when the drum or trumpet soundeth the same, whether it be upon any sallies, made out of any town or fortes, or in skirmish, or in any encounter, shall be punished with death.

50 It now resteth, that all Captaines and supreme officers, whether governor in towne, fort or fortes, or Captain of companies shall be advised to do their indevors joyfully, and to agree in one accord, that the true and never failing Justice, may be executed with all integrity of all these foredeclared lawes, according to the dignitie, power, and censure of the Martiall court, that by the exemplar lives, and honourable practises of all that is good and vertuous, all things may be governed in good order, as no doubt, our Right Honorable Lord Generall doth assure himselfe, that all good and upright men that have the feare of God, and his service, and their owne honour in regard, will demean themselves no lesse, then according to the dignity of their place, and charge of their command, the united powers of his Lordships knowledge, being so full of approved noblesse, and the well knowne, and long time exercised grounds of Piety, as without question he cannot but desire rather a little number of good men, obedient and tractable, submitting to good order and discpline, then a great armie, composed of vittuous prophanes, quarrellious, disobedient, and ignoble persons, wherefore in his Lordships behalfe, I must intreat all Governors, Captains, Officers, and Soldiers, and nevertheless do injoyne, ordaine and command them.

Instructions of the Marshall for better inhabling of the Colonell or Governour, to the executing of his or their charges in this present Colony the 22nd of June, 1611.

Albeit the zeal which I beare unto this businesse that we have all now in hand touching the subsistance of this planta tion, might justly take up all my spirits, and would re quire a large and passionate explanation of mine owne thoughts and promptnesse to gaine and possess the hearts of all understanding, noble and religious spirits hereunto, yet I must crave pardon (considering at this time many present impediments) if I wrap up any impatient desires and good affection hereunto, to all such unto whom these necessary effects of my dutie and office shall appertaine, and must be declared in few words and advices, appertinent yet (if not essentiall, as heat to bloud, to the advancement hereof) [i] say desire then by these is chiefly to let all the worther and better sort to understand, how well it shall be come their Honors, births, breedings, reputations and faithes, to do their bests, and emulously to actuate in this worske, the utmost of their clearest powers of body and mind, where the travele of both is so dearly valued, and highly interpreted by al good and wise men, who knowing the grounds of all goodnes, cannot but know this, how this hazardous voyage (as yet but in howe barely daies, reflecting only the comfort of faire hopes) is undertaken by you, more to honour God, your country, and to profit your knowledges, then for any other ends of profite, which speaks had of this plantation in England, and the travel that is taken therein, and the fire that doth not only burne in the generall body of our desire countrymen, to the encouragement and joy one of another amongst themselves, but flames of this honorable enterprise, there is no man here would

to carry himself, for each mans owne experience here hath made him out go at use of my admonition, which my affection wold willingly else afford if there were cause. Only to discharge my service to god whose soilder I doe now professe my sole impest, in this so glorious and great a cause of his, my duty to my Sovereigne Liege Lord and King, and to his Highness my Royall Prince and Master, to my Country and the expectation of many Honorable select, painful, and Religious adventurers, Patrones of this businesse, I have conceived no whit impertinent to deliver and publish to every eminent officer in this Colony here present, and for the direction and guiding of such who may hereafter arrive here such and so many few instructions as may the better enable them to execute their charges, no whit doubting, but every Colonell, Governour Captaine, and other Officer may sufficiently understand his and their duties, as they are Souldiers, but happily not yet as they are, or may be Coloni, members of a Colony, which comprised and involved here, as well all the industrious knowledges and practices of the Husbandman and of his spade, as of the Souldier, and of his Sword, since as Monle is the payment and wages of the one, so of the other are the fruits of the earth the tillage and manuring of the Land, and in very truth of more necessity and use shall we heere be of the latter then of the other, whether of you be comprehended the souldier himselfe or his Salarie, since more ease it is to make a Husbandman a Souldier, then a Souldier a Husbandman. And indeed the necessity of our subsisting, and the very daunger which our enemies of this Country can any way put us unto (our Companies and people well commanded) requiring the chiose rather of the one then the other. These being then the ends and intents of this work, and so understood, by every supreme and chiefe commander, I refer him to these following instructions.

All Governors of Town or Towns, Fort or Forts, shall be ready (when so be it they shall be summoned thereunto) to take their Oaths of Allegiance unto his Majestie and of faithfulness unto such his majesties Lieutenants, or to his Deputy or Deputies (authorised by Commission to command over and within the precincts of this whole Colony, or Colonies[1]), by the Tenor of which Oaths they shall solemnly attest to perform all Integrity, uprightness, Justice and sincere administration of the discipline and Lawes in all cases and cases, for the good of the Colony or Colonies, provided and declared, and shall invendor the best they may, with all carefulnesse to advance the dignity, and substance of the same, as well by giving often in charge, and taking no lesse in to their own care, both the particular preservation of all such helpe of what condition soever (especially of cattell, and all kinds of such breeders[1]), which mayest soone redound unto the utility, and profit of the same, as by rendring the provisions of the store, and the well husbanding of the same, be they of what several qualitie soever. Nor is he meanely to be watchfull, and jealous over his owne wares and carriage in all particulars, making profession, and practises of all vertue and goodnes for examples unto others to imitate, it being true that examples at all times prevalie farre above precepts, men learning readily to bee led by their eies, then their care, for seeing a lively pattern of industry, order and comlinesse, wee are all of us rather swayed unto the same by a visible object, then by hearing much more in wel instructed Arguments. Every such Governor therefore shall make it his first duty to resort daily and usually to the divine Service, next to put in execution the Lawes duly against offenders, and withall cherish and reward the well deserving, and lastly with all worthines and circumspection, aburse himself unto and towards his Garrison, interest all men as well strangers as others, with all Grace, humanity, and sweetness of a noble nature, and manliness, unto all which I hastily advise, and withall injoyne every such Governor of Town or Towns, to be most indulgent, and careful to performe, as hee will answer the contrary (beside with the lose of his own Honor), with such other penalties, as the neglect of so behoofeful and necessary business in his, may draw upon the Colony.

Further he ought to be most vigilant, circumspect, and provident for the conservation, defending, and keeping the Town or Fort, for and unto his Majesty, wherein he is placed cheefe commander, and therfore ought the more duely to strengthen his Judgement, and remember his reputation, that he fall into neither of those extremes, which the needy and prodigall are most what culpable of, the one wasting the stocks, commodities and provisions of the store, by which he must subsist, and the other by being ravenous and corrupt in himselfe become likewise enforced to tolerate the same in his inferior captains, and so leave the poore Souldier and Labourer, miserably pilled, oppressed and starved.

Further he ought to provide that the companies be trained, and that they may bee made ready for the publicke service, and for that the condition of this country doth require rather shot then other Armes, either for offence or defence, and time being precious with us in respect of our dayly labours and works abroad belonging to our subsisting, in so much, as a small portion thereof may bee afforded and allowed unto such exercising and training, therefore it is appointed by the Marshall, that the Captains that shall have the Guard, during their time of Guard (their people as then being exempted from their dayly labour and work abroad) and their Officers shall teach every Souldier to handle his pece, first to present it comely, and souldier like, and then to give fire, by false firing, and so to fall his Piece to the right side with the nose up, and when their souldiers are hardy and expert in this, they shall set up a convenient mark fast by the court of Guard, at which every Souldier shall twice discharge his pece, at the releaving of the watch, morning and evening, and he that shall shoot nearest[,] the Governor shall do well to allow some addition of victuals, or pay, or some prize of encouragement, that every one may thereby emulously contend to do best. Concerning the training, and cleanly exercising of their Armes, and their postures, the captains shall have order and directions for the same under the Marshalls hand which they shall put in Execution during the time of their Guard.

It is also required that the Governor never lie out of his Towne or Fort whereby hee may the better keep off espiall upon all officers, that they perform their several duties each one in his place especially in good observation of the watch and Guard, for the more confident securing the charge committed to him:

Hee shall not suffer in his Garrison any Souldier to enter into Guard, or to bee drawne out into the field without being armed according to the Marshalls order, which is, that every shot shall either be furnished with a quilited coat of Canvas, a headpiece, and a sword, or else with a light Armor, and Bases* quitted, with which hee shall be furnished: and every Targitier with his Bases to the small of his legge, and his headpiece, sword and pistol, or Scuppet, provided for that end. And likewise every Officer armed as before, with a Brellocke, or Snaphaune,° headpiece, and a Target, onely the Serjeant in Garrison shall use his Halberd, and in field his Snaphaune and Target.

The Governor shall have a Principal care, that he use his Garrison to the daily wearing of these Armours, least in the field, the souldier do finde them the more uncomly strange and troublesome.

Lastly the Governor shall have a singular care to put in execution all such Orders and Instructions as shall bee delivered unto him from the Generall, or his depute or deputys, concerning the employments of his Garrison upon such manuall works and duties, as shall be thought necessary and convenient for the better subsisting both of the Laborers, and Garrison committed unto him: in which is not to bee forgotten the chary conservation of powder, and munition, which will the better inhale him for the defence of his Charge.

The Governor shall be better instructed by taking notice of the Lawes published, that these following abuses are provided for, impious and malicious speaking against the holy and blessed Trinity, Blasphemy, and taking Gods holy name in vain, traiterous words against his majesties person, or Royall Authority, unreverent Deemeand to the Ministers and preachers of the same, the detestable crime of

Sodomy, incest, theft, murther, false witnessing, treason against the Person of the Generall, and principal Commanders of this Colony, and their designs, against Destracting, Murmuring or slandering of the Right Honourable, the Counsell resident in England, and the Committees there, the Generall Council and Subalterne Commanders, heere, as also against intemperate sayings and base unmanly speeches uttered in the disgrace one of another, all which the Marshall Law, as well as the Civil Magistrate is to punish, but these which concern in particular the military Discipline, to enable your judgement for your sentence to be required, that it may with greater cleereness, and understanding, called to censure offences in the Marshall court be delivered, I have abstracted, as followeth

1 Conference with the enemy, without leave or warrant, from the Lord Generall, Lieutenant Generall, Marshal, or chief and principal command for the present.

2 The designes, enterprises, and estate of the Colony, revealed to what enemy soever, by privy messengers, or missives, or otherwise in what sort soever.

3 The not present advertising, and giving notice unto a cheefe Commandeer, of such things as any man knoweth intended any way, or by any body, for the damage, mischief, or ill of the Colony, or the concealement in any one of any matter of importance, and moment for the good of the Colony.

4 Running unto the enemy, or intending, and plotting to runne albeit prevented.

° Damage.
5 Of any one taken prisoner by the enemy, having means to escape, and not returning to the Colony again, unless he have given faith.

6 Of attempting commotion, giving occasion of sedition, or Mutiny in the Colony, or seducing any labourer or soldier from their duty, divine, civil, or martial, or from their appointed works and labours.

7 Of disclosing or giving the word unto the enemy, or unto any other, where it ought not to be given.

8 Of receiving, or protecting any Indian, stranger, or suspected spie, or supposed enemy, into house, or any covert, with making it knowne to the General, or chief officer, and without leave from him so to doe.

9 Suspitious and privily entering into the Camp Town, or Fort, or going out by any other wales and issues, then those, which are accustomed, as over the Ramparts, Pallizades, Trenches, etc.

10 Of doing any act, or contriving any practise, which may prejudice the service of his Majesty commanded for the good of the Colony, by the Generall, or chief Officer.

11 Of breaking the Truce, or peace at any time concluded with the Indian, without leave and warrant expressly given, by him who hath power so to doe.

12 Of pillaging, or violently forcing from any Indian to [or] friend, without leave.

13 Of ransacking, ransoming, or violently outraging, and dispoiling the Country people, or making war upon them,

FOR THE COLONY IN VIRGINIA

14 Of laying violent hands on his Captaine or other superiour officer, and generally upon any one whatsoever, to whom duty and obedience is due, especially if it be in the execution of his Office.

15 Of him who shall see his superior, or chief officer in danger, and shall not doe his endeavour to rescue and relieve him with all his force, and power.

16 Of him who shall violently or hardly intreate, or kill his soldiier, without good; and lawful occasion, or that he have deserved so to be intreated, not to satisfy his own pleasure and appetize, to punish in colour, and revenge, thereby thinking to make himselfe more redoubt, a brave man, and to be feared, remembering well, the life of a soldiier, or a laborer, belongs to none to take away, but to the Lord Generall, Lieutenants General, Marshal, or their deputy or deputies.

17 Of killing any one, except it be in his own defence.

18 Of striking or fighting with an other man, having a quarrell unto him, and not holding his or their hands when an officer or third party comes between and cries, Holah.

19 Of making debate, raising question, or laying his hand on his sword, and drawing it in the Court of Guard, in Ambush, or other place, where he ought to be modest, peaceable, silent, and to keep himself in covert.

20 Of assaying or divouring by bravery, and chiefly by trechery, to outrage or injury any one without a cause, in deed or in words, privately behind his back like a sly coward, or openly to his face, like an arrogant ruffian, since words are the parents of bowes, and from quarrels infinite disorders, and mischiefs gather head whether in Campe, Towne, or Fort.

21 Of revenging a new wrong, or old injury, by any course, contrary to the peace of the camp or Colony.

22 Of running where any quarrell is a foote, and compaines gathered together, furnishd with other Armes then his sword.

23 Of taking away any mony in bravery, wonne from another, or gotten by play otherwise without the will and consent of him, from whom he wonne it, or cheating or censure in play.

24 Of not repairing to the place of Armes, or Colors at the publique beating of the Drum.

25 Of wilfully firing any place, without order from the superior officer.

26 Of sacrilege or taking any goods out of Churches, or Temples, be they sacred or profane, without license from the chiefe commander.

27 Of a Souldier knowing himself in two companies at one time.

28 Of going out of one company into another, without leave of his Captaine.

29 Of absenting himselfe from the Campe, towne, or fort, without permission of a superior officer.

30 Of him that shall receive his pay, and shall go away without speaking a word, it is a case capital, and worthy of death.

31 Of suborning "souldiers the one from the other, which is an evill example, and which doth draw many inconveniences with it.

32 Of quarrels, debates, and revenge.

33 Of failing to go, or refusing to follow, where his ensigne shall march, or else where that he shall be commanded by those who have authority so to command without enquiring the cause.

34 Of abandoning his ensigne without leave or going from the place assigned him, be it in fight, in the court of guard, Centinels, or other part, not brought of by those who placed him there, or others having the same authority.

35 Of a Souldier not doing his endeavour to recover his ensigne, if the enemie have taken it.

36 Of being wanting at his watch, upon his time appointed, or of going of the Guard without leave, albeit under a colour of espin."

37 Of being found sleeping in Centinell, or of him who placed upon some Guard or watch by his negligence hath given means to the enemie, to do some spoile in the campe, town, or fort, and to surprise them at unawares.

38 Of running away from the battell, conflict, or assault, etc. and of him that marcheth too slowly, or maketh delays in any other sort.

59 Of a Souldier faining himselfe sicke, when any service is to be performed.

40 Of yelding unto the enemy, a place which he hath in gard, without doing first his duty to the uttermost, and be not constrained unto it, according to the quality of the same, and the state whereunto he shall be drawn.

41 Of being appointed to defend a breach, trench, or passage, committed unto his charge, and do forsake it altogether, without being forced thereunto by the enemy.

42 Of entring into any place taken by force, and pillaging the same, not following his colors, or forsaking the same, without a publike proclamation, made by the chiefe commander, that it shall be lawful so to pillage.

43 Of a soldier being found unfurnished of his arms, and of such furniture, as he is appointed to weare and ought to have, by losing them in play, or in cowardly running away, or otherwise by his default or negligence.

44 Of a soullers going from his quarter, town, or fort, without he have leave from a superior officer.

45 Of a soldier advancing himselfe, to go before the troopes, be it to come first to his lodging, or for any other occasion, or wandering here and there, and straging when he should march.

46 Of not retiring so soone as the drum or trumpet shall sound retreat, whether it be comyning out of any towne, or skirmish, or any other fight.

47 Of speaking loud, or making a noise in the battel or any other place, where silence is to be used, except those who have power to command.

Instructions of the Marshall for the better inhabling of the Captaines of the watch, to the executing of his charge in this present Colony. the 22nd of June. 1613.

Silence, as in every living creature, there be many and sundry members and those distinct in place and office, and all yet under the regiment of the soule, and heart, so in every army, commonwealth, or Colonie (all bodies a like compounded) it cannot be otherwise for the establishment of the same in perfect order and venue, but that there should be many differing parts, which directed by the chiefe, should helpe to governe and administrate justice under him. And if it be thus in this civil Audit, and courts of a well setted State, much more sure as it required, to be in their beginnings, and no lease shall we read, how that first and great commander over the Colony of the children of Israel, conducting them from Egypt to make their plantation in the land of Promise, appointed Captains over Tribes and hundreds for the war, and Elders to sit upon the breach (whilst unto himselfe all great causes were brought, whether martial, or civil to direct and determine) it otherwise being impossible, so many and infinite occasions both being to be thought upon, and requiring judicall audience, should ever come by one man (of
