SCREW MEN BALK AT THE TWO HUNDRED BALE MARK

Mayor Behrman's Suggestion Was a Compromise on a Hundred and Eighty, But Neither Side Would Listen. Phantasm Work Goes On.

By a vote of association, based on the unanimous desire of the members, to get the mind of the screwmen into the right channel, a decision of the cotton bale and the removal of the cotton bale marks was accepted. Mayor Behrman's suggestion was a compromise on a hundred and eighty, but neither side would listen. Phantasm work goes on.

The decision has been made in the interests of peace and order, and the situation will be taken care of as the matter progresses. Mayor Behrman, who had been trying to get the screwmen into the right channel, was agreed to by both sides, and the matter has been taken care of as the matter progresses.
