STRIKE STILL UNSETTLED.

ARBITRATION THE HITCH.

Conference of the Exchanges insists on a Verdict that will give the Port Parity.

While Steelmen Wait Concession in Wage Limit to Settle Matter, Adventures seek to master Peace.

There is likelihood of a breach in the steel industry, which will affect the entire labor situation, as the conference of the exchanges has insisted on a verdict that will give the port parity.

The conference was held under the presidency of J. E. Van Kooten, the chairman of the conference, and was attended by representatives of the steel industry from all parts of the country. The conference was brought to a close by the chairman, who declared that the parties would meet again at a later date to discuss the matter.

The conference was attended by the following persons:

Chairman: J. E. Van Kooten

Secretary:

The conference was adjourned at 5 p.m.

Chairman, Conference:

Mr. J. E. Van Kooten, who was chairman of the conference, declared that the parties would meet again at a later date to discuss the matter.

The conference was attended by the following persons:

Chairman: J. E. Van Kooten

Secretary: