COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE PORT CHARGES NOT CHosen

Plan to Put Negroes on Tribunal Objected to as Likely to Nullify Movement.

Ship Agents Will Select Men Outside Their Fords, and Sectionists Say That Counsel Men Do the Same.

The committee to investigate the charges of the Negroes against the ship agents on the San Francisco waterfront is likely to meet with the same result as the Negroes' previous attempts to organize a waterfront movement. The committee was appointed by a Negro organization, and the members were selected by the Negro leaders. The Negroes' movement was organized to investigate the charges of the Negroes against the ship agents on the San Francisco waterfront.
