GOVERNOR BLANCHARD ASKS
TO HEAR STRIKE STORY.

Summons Militia Officers to Conference, and Says Peace Will Be Maintained,
And No Attacks Upon the Vast Commerce of the Great Port Permitted—Strikers Breaking Coming To-Night.

Governor Blanchard will remain in San Francisco today and will probably pro failure to the coast from Vancouver, Washington, in Alaska, for the purpose of seeing the situation. He has been asked about this yesterday and been at several meetings with reporters. He will be in the city all day and will be able to confer with strikers and strike leaders at any time.

SIGNIFICANT PROPOSALS.

The strike is of momentous importance and it is expected that Governor Blanchard's proposals will result in an agreement. The state of the situation is abnormal, and nothing can be done until the Governor returns.
