Punishment of Crimes when of the Party shall have been duly convicted: provided always, That any person escaping into the same, from whom labour or service is lawfully claimed in any other State, such fugitive may be lawfully reclaimed and conveyed to the person claiming her or his labour or service, as aforesaid: Provided never the less, That the said Provision shall not be construed to affect the extradition or civil rights of any person now held to service or labor in the said Territory.

And that the following provision be added to the same:

And be it further enacted, That it is all that Territory ceded by France to the United States under the name of Louisiana, which lies north of thirty degrees and thirty minutes North latitude, not included within the limits of the State contemplated by this act, Slavery and involuntary servitude otherwise than in the punishment of Crimes when of the Party shall have been duly convicted, shall be and is hereby